2022-2023 PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATION FORM

The Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) we recently received from the federal processor and the Student Aid Report (SAR) you received at your home had the following comment listed:

"The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates you have one or more student loans discharged because of a total and permanent disability. Before you can receive additional federal student loans, you must see your Financial Aid Administrator."

To receive additional federal student loans, a doctor's certification is required stating that you can participate in substantial gainful activity and you must sign a statement indicating that you are aware that the new loan cannot be discharged in the future unless you are again declared totally and permanently disabled.

The borrower's physician must complete the following information:

I, _____ certify the impairment(s) of (Physician's name and degree/specialty)

Patient _____ has improved sufficiently (Patient/Borrower's name)

to allow the patient/borrower to participate or to engage in substantial gainful activity. Substantial gainful activity is a level of work performed for pay or profit that involves doing significant physical or mental activities, or a combination of both. The patient/borrower regained the ability to engage in substantially gained activity as previously defined as of
