GED Testing Service will fulfill diplomas and transcripts for both new and repeat requests as far back as there is data available. Recent testers who pass the GED® tests get an electronic diploma and transcript scores, plus a FREE printed diploma from the MyGED.com portal.

Additional requests or third-party verifications usually have a cost associated with the request and vary from state to state. To order a transcript:

1. Visit www.myged.com
2. Click on Request Transcript
3. Select the correct link according to when you completed the GED Test
4. Follow the instructions

For customer service support, send an email to: help@GEDtestingservice.com.

If you have additional questions concerning your GED, please contact the Board of Regents for the state in which you completed the test.
